<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>PRODUCT</th>
<th>SPECIFICATIONS</th>
<th>ACCESSORIES</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| Part # PTF-80D-BLK       | • Aluminum Housing
• Black Finish
• Accomodates 3” Poles
• Mogul or Medium Socket
• Direct Wire or Available with HPS/MH Ballast
• 8” Neck; 9” Neck Available
• Streetlamp Globes Extra                                                                                                                                   | Designed to fit any acorn streetlamp or round globe with an 8” Neck.                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Part # PTF-INBLK         | • For Globes w/a 5.25" hole
• Clampdown Lips
• E-Based Socket
• Black or White Options                                                                                                                                                                                               | Designed to fit any globe or acorn with an 5.25” Hole                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
| Part # PTF-INALUM        | • Aluminum Housing
• Black Finish
• Direct Wire
• E-Based Socket
• High Quality                                                                                                                                                                                                           | Designed to fit any globe or acorn with an 5.25” hole                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Part # PTF-MOGALUM       | • Aluminum Housing
• Black Finish
• Direct Wire
• Mogul-Based Socket
• High Quality                                                                                                                                                                                                          | Designed to fit any globe or acorn with an 5.25” hole                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |